Konana's "Dashi" Commitment and the Secret of Deliciousness

The dashi used in all of Konana's pastas is the essence of Konana, and the "deliciousness" you experience when eating our dishes comes from the taste and aroma of this dashi. When your Konana pasta is served, first, please enjoy the "smell" of the dashi.

Our dashi is carefully balanced, featuring rich flavors from bonito flakes sourced from Makurazaki in Kagoshima Prefecture, and a mellow taste from three types of kelp sourced from Hokkaido. Additionally, we add a slight thickness to ensure it clings well to the pasta, and enhance the dashi's flavor with extra-special soy sauce.

These various commitments have culminated in the creation of "Konana Dashi". That's why it pairs so perfectly with our pasta!

Konana's White and Black Bolognese

Konana's White and Black Bolognese features luxurious use of beef from Awaji Island, raised in its rich natural environment. The well-balanced blend of fat and lean minced beef is crafted into a Bolognese sauce that pairs perfectly with fresh pasta. The White Bolognese, with its white sesame and soy milk base, has a kick of ginger. The Black Bolognese, rich and savory, is made with Hatcho Miso. Are you a fan of the white or the black?

acial pasta that you can only experience at "Konana."

Konana's soy sauce pasta uses soy sauce from Yuasa in Kishu, the birthplace of soy sauce. The deep richness and umami, achieved through careful double fermentation, enhance the ingredients and bring a unique flavor. Enjoy special soy sauce pasta, filled with the essence of Konana's incorporation of Japanese ingredients and seasonings, which you can't find anywhere else.

Highly Popular Dish! Konana's Soy Milk Carbonara

Konana's soy milk carbonara, a consistently popular dish, is packed with a perfect balance of flavors and unique touches. The rich taste of soy milk and fresh cream is enhanced by the flavor of Konana's dashi and a hidden hint of kelp tea, creating a robust and satisfying taste. Despite its rich flavor, it has a light and refreshing texture that allows you to enjoy it to the last bite without feeling Konana's original spice blend, "Konana no Kuro," which includes Sichuan pepper and black pepper, pairs excellently with the soy milk carbonara. Enjoy changing the flavor with it while you eat.

For first-timers, we recommend the standard "Konana's Soy Milk Carbonara." When you want a change of pace, try the "Funagata Mushroom Soy Milk Carbonara," made with an abundance of high-quality mushrooms from Funagata Town, Yamagata Prefecture.
